REALISTIC PLAY.

"The Fatal Scar" Has All the Elements of High-Class Melodrama.
At the Frazer on Tuesday, December 20, the realistic and touching melodrama, "The Fatal Scar," introducing Frank James, of the James boys, and presented with a strong cast and elaborate scenery.
Its pathos is affecting, its mirth irresistible and its dramatic situations strong and stirring. It is presented with great realism both in its setting and in the action which reveals with marked clearness and force its very strong plot.

2 for 1.

Their store is filled to the brim and almost running over with useful sensible Xmas gifts and as to the bargain side of it, you must see, examine and get their prices to fully realize how much goodness you are getting along with the low price. As an additional inducement for morning trading, the Peoples Warehouse will give two tickets for the $1 purchase instead of 1. The Peoples Warehouse does this to relieve the afternoon crowds.

A Perfectly Natural Play.

The Frazer will offer its patrons "The Fatal Scar" next Tuesday, December 20. The good qualities consist of its naturalness; none of the scenes or characters being overdrawn. The scenic effects as well as the cast which is headed by Frank James, brother of Jesse James, are promised to be equal to all requirements.
